20-053408 5/30/2020 10:00:00PM 90C Disorderly Conduct 150 River St

On 06/01/2020 at 16:00 hours, I, Investigator Chris Bruce is conducting an investigation into Disorderly Conduct at 150 River St.

On 05/30/2020, On May 30, 2020, Chattanooga Police Officers responded to several protests in which protesters had occupied the streets to included Market St, Frazier Ave, and Tremont St. The protesters traveled over towards the Market Street Bridge. At approximately 22:09 hours, As Chattanooga Police Officers, Hamilton County Sheriffs Office Deputies, and Tennessee Highway Patrol Officers, were attempting to disperse the protesters. It was discovered, Charles Toney pushed two City of Chattanooga Trash Cans onto the middle of the intersection of River Street and Tremont Street. Mr. Toney was then seen turning over the trash cans which caused trash to be emptied onto the street. This action from Mr. Toney incited others to engage in a riot and violent behavior. These acts of violence stems from a protest of George Floyd. From there, two more individuals emptied a Trash Dumpster which was full of garbage onto the street as well. This incident was captured by the CPD Real Time Intelligence Center Cameras and preserved on video.

This is an on going investigation.

26A False Pretenses/Swindle/Confidence 1301 Riverfront Pkwy

On 06/03/2020 at 08:38 hours, Officer C. Glenn (60757) responded to a False Pretenses/Swindle/Confidence Game at 1301 Riverfront Pkwy.

I spoke with Brian Starnes of F2F Transport, by telephone. He says that after hours on 27 May, 2020, two employees were scammed out of $19,702.68 by an unknown party claiming to be a repair service for some company owned vehicles.

There were numerous transactions on the company's "WEX Bank" account. Those transactions are listed in the attached PDF in investigative documents.

On 06/03/2020 at 13:06 hours, Officer C. Glenn (60757) wrote a continuation/supplement for a False Pretenses/Swindle/Confidence Game at 1301 Riverfront Pkwy.

In the process of entering the report, I made two mistakes in the narrative. These errors have been corrected in RMS to show incident date 27 May, 2020 and the correct amount of $19,702.68.
